Organic traffic during a website redesign

Making AI search a revenue channel

STARTING POINT

No clear view of which AI platforms sent buyers, or whether AI traffic converted at all

WHAT I DID

- Prioritized product and collection pages, where AI answers send buyers
- Covered the questions buyers ask AI before they purchase
- Tracked AI referral revenue by source to see which platforms convert

$71K+

Revenue from AI search referrals in the last 12 months, with ChatGPT revenue up 441% YoY

	Unified Source	Total revenue ▾	% Δ
1.	ChatGPT	$64,717.59	440.6% ↑
2.	perplexity / (not set)	$2,774.15	242.0% ↑
3.	gemini.google.com / referral	$1,103.08	2,529.5% ↑
4.	perplexity.ai / referral	$1,011.21	146.1% ↑
5.	perplexity / referral	$481.07	460.9% ↑

Getting product pages cited by AI

STARTING POINT

A seasonal golf store with some AI visibility, but pages that were not built for AI answers

WHAT I DID

- Ran a competitor gap analysis to find the questions the store wasn’t answering
- Restructured product and collection pages around those questions
- Added schema and FAQ sections to key pages

1,000+

AI mentions and 563 cited pages across ChatGPT, AI Overviews, AI Mode and Gemini within one year

Rebuilding the architecture of a large affiliate site

STARTING POINT

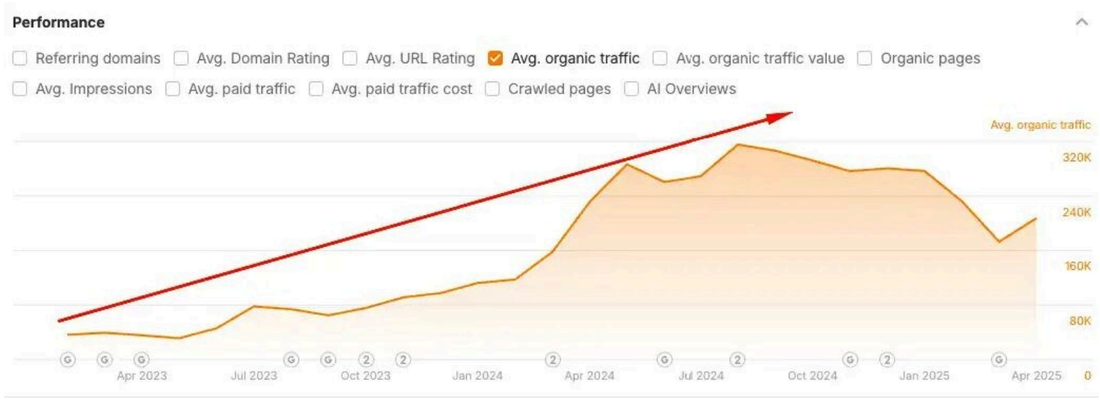

A multilingual affiliate site with 300K+ duplicate pages, unneeded market targeting and many technical gaps

WHAT I DID

- Removed duplicate pages to free up crawl budget
- Refocused the site on its core markets and fixed technical gaps
- Matched the offers on each page to its search intent

9x

Organic traffic, from under 35K to 320K+ monthly visits, with revenue growing every quarter

Merging two competing stores into one

STARTING POINT

Two stores selling the same products and competing with each other in search

WHAT I DID

- Merged both stores into one site and owned SEO for the migration
- Built ~100 referring domains with an average DR of 55+
- Optimized collection and product pages for organic search and AI answers
- Made the homepage more commercial, not just informational, with an interactive, shoppable gear player

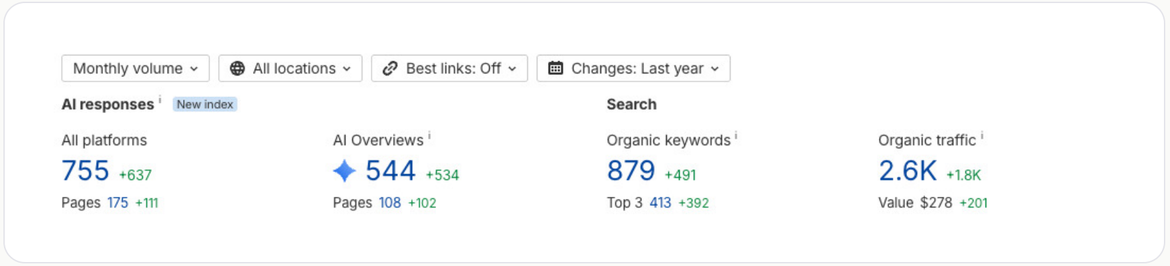

20x

More keywords in the top 3, from 21 to 413 year over year

Growing traffic through a full website redesign

STARTING POINT

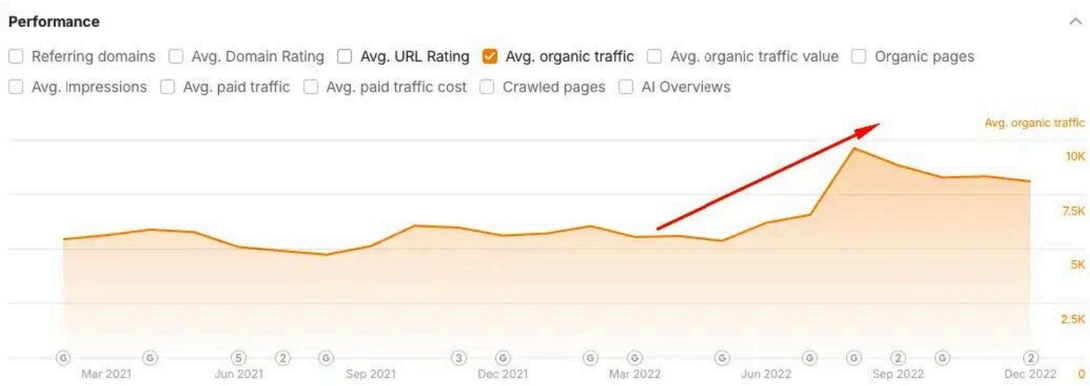

An outdated website that needed a full redesign, with organic traffic at risk during the move

WHAT I DID

- Planned every page’s structure around user pain points and how the product solves them
- Mapped search intent across all page templates
- Targeted high impact keywords while managing migration risk

+50%

Organic traffic in four months, from around 6K to 10K+ monthly visits at a global B2B SaaS company

What clients and colleagues say

Rating on PeoplePerHour

"Dragan was a key part of the team behind our biggest organic growth win, the 9x traffic increase. He has a great mind for SEO strategy, sharp on architecture and priorities, and he's easy to work with."

Dragan Berak
Head of SEO, Gentoo Media

"We brought Dragan in to work directly with our Spanish-speaking clients on technical audits, and it was a smooth fit from day one despite the language gap. Clear fixes, clear communication, and results our clients actually noticed."

Rafa Sospedra
Consultor SEO y Experto en IA, Kupakia

"Got lots of useful insights from the audit, and Dragan was great with following up on the details and queries."

Gojko Adžić
Founder, Narakeet
